STONY POINT

HUDSON VALLEY LIGHTING

The Stony Point sconce explores the intersection of materiality and form as an elongated opal glass LED appears to float within the recess of a honed gray travertine backplate. As light washes the stone, it highlights the natural variations and veining. Finished in Aged Brass, Stony Point may be mounted vertically or horizontally, making it a versatile addition to modern baths and living spaces.

*Due to the one-of-a-kind nature of the medium, exact colors and patterns may vary slightly from the image shown.
